

Draft resolution

Review process of the implementation of General Assembly resolutions 67/290 and 70/299 on the follow-up and review of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development at the global level and resolution 72/305 on the strengthening of the Economic and Social Council

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolutions 67/290 of 9 July 2013 entitled “Format and organizational aspects of the high-level political forum on sustainable development” and 70/299 of 29 July 2016 entitled “Follow-up and review of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development at the global level”;

Recalling also its resolution 72/305 of 23 July 2018 entitled “Review of the implementation of General Assembly resolution 68/1 on the strengthening of the Economic and Social Council” and all previous related resolutions on strengthening the Economic and Social Council;

Reaffirming its resolution 70/1 of 25 September 2015, entitled “Transforming our world: the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development”, and reaffirming our unwavering commitment to achieving this Agenda and utilizing it to the full to transform our world for the better by 2030;

Reaffirming further its resolution 74/4 of 15 October 2019 entitled “Political declaration of the high-level political forum on sustainable development convened under the auspices of the General Assembly” and the pledge to launch a decade of action and delivery for sustainable development;

Recognizing the threats to sustainable development, including to health, safety and well-being and to the world economy caused by the coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19) pandemic, and its unprecedented effects, that require a coordinated response and global solidarity;

Further recognizing that the poorest and people living in vulnerable situations are the most affected and that the impact of the pandemic will have repercussions on sustainable development in all countries, especially in developing countries, by hampering progress in the achievement of the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs);

Stressing that the current crisis is a reminder that the implementation of the 2030 Agenda is crucial to help better equip the world for future systemic shocks, and that the SDGs are a shared blueprint for building back better through a people-centred, inclusive, sustainable and resilient recovery, promoting the economic, social and environmental dimensions of sustainable development, while leaving no one behind;

1. Recognizes the role that the Charter of the United Nations and the General Assembly have vested in the Economic and Social Council as a principal organ for coordination, policy review, policy dialogue and recommendations on issues of economic and social development as well as for implementation of the international development goals agreed at the major UN conferences and summits in the economic, social, environmental and related fields and the central role, and effective and participatory character of the high-level political forum under the auspices of the General Assembly and ECOSOC in overseeing follow-up and review of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development at the global level working coherently with the General Assembly, the Economic and Social Council and other relevant organs and forums, in accordance with existing mandates;

2. Decides, to conduct, in conjunction, the reviews of General Assembly resolutions 72/305, on the review of the implementation of General Assembly resolution 68/1 on the strengthening of the Economic and Social Council; resolution 67/290 on the format and organizational aspects of the high-level political forum on sustainable development and resolution 70/299, on the follow-up and review of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development at the global level, taking into account the provisions of the present resolution, during its 75th session;
3. Further Decides that the thematic focus of the Economic and Social Council for its 2021 session and the 2021 high-level political forum on sustainable development under the auspices of ECOSOC shall be “Sustainable and resilient recovery from the COVID-19 pandemic, while promoting economic, social and environmental dimensions of sustainable development: Building an inclusive and effective path for the achievement of the 2030 Agenda in the context of the decade of action and delivery for sustainable development;
4. Also decides that the high-level political forum for 2021, without prejudice to the integrated, indivisible and interlinked nature of the SDGs, will discuss the following set of goals in depth: 1, 2, 3, 8, 10, 12, 13, 16 and 17;
5. Decides that the review will take into account the different and particular impact of the COVID-19 pandemic across all SDGs, consider progress in implementing the 2030 Agenda in its entirety and address the inter-linkages between Sustainable Development Goals, to promote integrated actions cutting across the three dimensions of sustainable development that can create co-benefits, address synergies and trade-offs, and meet multiple objectives in a coherent way, leaving no one behind;
6. Decides that the review will cover the targets of the Sustainable Development Goals with a 2020 timeline;
7. Also decides to define the theme of the Economic and Social Council, and that of the high-level political forum under the auspices of ECOSOC as well as the remaining Sustainable Development Goals to be reviewed in depth for the two outstanding years of the four-year HLPF cycle as soon as possible during its 75th session in a manner that ensures coherence over the 2020-2023 cycle and reflects the holistic nature of the 2030 Agenda;
8. Further decides to agree at its 77th session on the thematic review of progress for the next cycle of the forum, including the yearly sequence of themes and the set of goals to be reviewed at each session.
